ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This book is written in tribute to the late Venerable Bhikkhu Ñanamoli, the great translator of Pali Theravada Buddhist texts into English. The main source of most of the stories in this book is Venerable Bhikkhu Ñanamoli's well known book, The Life of the Buddha According to the Pali Canon, published by the Buddhist Publication Society in Kandy, Sri Lanka, which has kindly granted permission for such use.

I offer my sincere gratitude to my Dharma teachers (in order of the time at which I met them): Ven. Katugastota Uparatana of International Buddhist Center of Wheaton, Ven. Karaputugala Indaratana of International Buddhist Society of Pennsylvania, Ven. Dr. Henepola Gunaratana of Bhāvana Society, Ven. Yogavachara Rahula of Bhāvana Society, and Ven. Maharagama Dhammasiri of Washington D.C. Buddhist Vihara. I also thank Ven. Dhammasiri, Ven. Uparatana, Ven. Pasanno of Wat Thai Washington D.C. and Souksomboun Sayasithsena of Wat Lao Buddhavong of Washington D.C. for their valuable contributions to this book.

I wish to thank all of the children who I taught in Dhamma School at the International Buddhist Center and in the Sai Spiritual Education (Bal Vikas) program, for giving me great happiness and inspiration. I particularly mention Priya and Lakshmi Soundararajan, sweet and shining examples of Dharma, who have gone to the next life.

I cannot express the profound appreciation I have for Asoka Ganhewa, for his support, encouragement and guidance.

May they all share in the merits accrued in publishing this book.
